

There are no translations available.

45 years of Hvar Observatory and 20 years of ACT: The role of 1-m class telescopes now and in the future 17 - 20 October 2017, Hvar, Croatia

XVth Hvar Astrophysical Colloquium is organized by Hvar Observatory , Faculty of Geodesy , University of Zagreb

. The meeting is held under the auspices of the Croatian Astronomical Society

. The Colloquium is sponsored by the Ministry of Science and Education

, Republic of Croatia.

Scientific programme

Participants list

Photo gallery

Venue and climate

Travel and accomodation

Additional information

Contact

Download XVth HAC poster

CONFERENCE MEETING PLACE

Hotel Amfora, Hvar Grand Beach Resort, Hvar, Croatia

TOPICS / SESSIONS

- Scientific results of the 1-m ACT in past 20 years
- Possibilities for upgrade and future observing plans
- Current and future collaborations
- Anniversary celebration

SCIENTIFIC ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

Roman Brajša (Croatia)
Arnold Hanslmeier (Austria)
Hans Michael Maitzen (Austria)
Martin Netopil (Czech Republic)

Domagoj Ruždjak (Croatia)
Miloš Zejda (Czech Republic)
Bodo Ziegler (Austria) Jaša Čalogović Isabell Piantschitsch
Domagoj Ruždjak
Ivica Skokić
Davor Sudar
Toni Visković

All contributions will be published in a special volume of the Central European Astrophysical Bulletin

The deadline for submitting the manuscripts is December 1, 2017.

SUPPORT

